

Go behind the scenes with FDNY Captain William Groneman III in one of the most memorable events in American History...

William Groneman describes his experiences during the dark day of September 11, 2001, and in the days and weeks that followed. His is a highly personal account written from the perspective of a Captain of the New York City Fire Department, but also from the perspective of a writer aware of the importance of a factual record.

Features 16 full color photos, including behind the scenes photos on 9-11.

William Groneman III was born, raised, and educated in New York City. He served twenty-five years on the New York City Fire Department. His final assignment was as Captain of Engine Company 308. He retired in 2002 to pursue his writing and public speaking career.
